Editor's Confab Here Next Weekend

College journalists from every corner of the state are expected to be on campus next Friday and Saturday for the first annual student-sponsored Iowa College Newspaper Editors' Conference.

Visiting editors will be guests of Trumpet staff members during the conference.

Sponsored by the Trumpet, with cooperation from the Des Moines Register, the Waterloo Courier and the Waverly Independent and Democrat, the confab will get under way with registration and a coffee hour beginning at 2 p.m. Friday.

At 3 p.m. student government leaders will form a panel and discuss with editors "The Role of the College Newspaper."

Presenting student views will be John Kunkel, editor of the Lorian, Loras College, Dubuque; Rod Hatle, co-editor of the Luther College Chips; and Rita Barkey, editor of the Collegian, Upper Iowa University, Fayette.

Following lunch, a round-table discussion will conclude the program. Linda Mugridge, editor of next year's Trumpet, will lead.

Day Of Prayer Will Be Observed Tomorrow

Universal Day of Prayer for Students will be observed tomorrow in Danforth Chapel.

Three services will be held during the afternoon to accommodate the students, according to Larry Nelson, president of the Lutheran Student Association. The first will be at 12:30 p.m., the second at 1:30 p.m. and the third at 5 p.m.

The service will last about thirty minutes and will be conducted by a group of students from the local LSA.

Wartburg's observance is a part of thousands of such services which will be held by Christians in the colleges and universities of literally all the countries in the world.

The international observance is sponsored by the World's Student Christian Federation, which unites Christian groups in over seventy countries around the world.

Since 1895 the third Sunday in February has been set aside by these same Christian fellowships as an occasion when prayers are made to God for the spiritual, physical and intellectual welfare of students, teachers and academic institutions of higher learning.

Chicago U. Prof. To Give Lecture

Dr. F. Clark Howell, assistant professor of anthropology at the University of Chicago, will lead a discussion-lecture next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Grossmann Hall Lounge.

Dr. Clark will lecture and show slides on the subject "Early Man and His African Occupation Sites." He will appear in convocation Thursday morning.

Sponsored by the Academic Life Committee, the lecture is open to everyone, according to Grace Jahn, chairman of the committee.

Cagers Receive 4th NCAA Tourney Bid

Wartburg's basketball squad has received its fourth consecutive NCAA Regional tourney bid this week, according to the NCAA committee at Wheaton, Ill.

Wartburg Knights were picked as one of the at-large teams to participate in the Midwest regional tournament to be held at Galesburg, Ill., March 4 and 5.

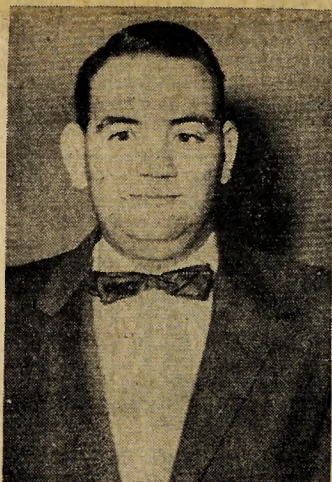

Knox College of Galesburg, Ill., will represent the Midwest Conference, and either South Dakota or South Dakota State will represent the North Central Conference.

Fourth spot is expected to be filled by Colorado College of Colorado Springs, Colo., or Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Mo.

Winner of the regional tournament will travel to Evansville, Ind., for the finals March 9 through 11 at Roberts Stadium.

Wartburg is currently carrying a 2-3 won-lost record in NCAA tournament post-season play.

Faculty Adds Two New Names To Roster

Moniz

Two new names will appear on the faculty roster when classes commence next year.

James Leamon, instructor of history from Providence, R.I., will join the Wartburg faculty next fall as a member of the History Department.

Leamon received his A.B. degree in 1955 from Bates College in Lewiston, Maine. Leamon held a teaching assistantship at Brown University, Providence, in 1957-58. He is, at present, a doctoral candidate at that university.

Leamon is married and has served in the United States Navy. He will fill the vacancies left by G. R. Bjorgan and Ronald Matthias during their leaves of absence for graduate study. Bjorgan will be gone the first semester, and Matthias the second.

A new personality to appear in the Business Department of Wartburg College with the advent of the 1960-61 school year will be James Moniz of Worcester, Mass., whose main responsibility will be the economics classes.

After attending Newman Preparatory School in Boston, Moniz resumed study at Clark University in Worcester, from which he received his bachelor's degree in 1956 and his master's in 1958. He is currently a candidate for a doctor's degree in economics at Clark University.

Having spent three years in the army both in Europe and the South Pacific, Moniz has also served as teaching assistant and instructor in economics and business administration at Clark University.

He has filled the position of president of the New England Conference Churchmen of the Augustana Lutheran Church besides serving on the board of directors of New England Lutheran Camp, Inc.

U. Of Iowa's H.L. Dean To Address Tri-Betas

Tri-Beta will hold its annual initiation banquet next Friday at 6 p.m. in St. John's Lutheran Church basement.

Dr. H. L. Dean, State University of Iowa Botany Department, will be the speaker for the occasion which will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church.

According to Dr. Elmer Hertel, Chairman of the Biology Department, 15 people are eligible for membership.

One of the qualifications for membership is that a person must have an overall grade point of 2.5.

Convo Schedules Worship, Science

The Rev. A. C. Schumacher, a former Student Body President of Wartburg College, will be the guest speaker at Tuesday's convocation of worship. Pastor Schumacher is presently serving at St. John's Lutheran Church in Madison, Wis.

Thursday's convocation program will feature Dr. F. Clark Howell, a physical anthropologist from the University of Chicago. Dr. Howell will speak to the students and faculty on evolution, discussing what he expects to be the outcome of the study of evolution.

Symphony To Give 2nd Concert March 1

Wartburg Community Symphony Orchestra will present its second concert of the year March 1 at 8 p.m. in Knights Gymnasium.

Featured soloist for the concert is Miss Jean Abramson, of the Wartburg Music Department. Playing the piano, she will present Mozart's "Piano Concert, K.537," often called "The Coronation Concerto."

The orchestra will play Beethoven's "Symphony No. 1" as well as lighter numbers, according to Robert E. Lee, director of the group. Among the lighter numbers are "Danse Macabre," "The Comedians' Gallop" and Leroy Anderson's "Horse and Buggy."

We Missed 'Em

Miss some names in the honor roll story last week? In case you didn't, the Trumpet did. Add sophomores Darlene Nimtz, John Loeschen and Joanne Mammen to your list of 3.5-er's.

Get Game Stubs

Tickets for the Luther College basketball game, to be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Luther's C. K. Preus Gymnasium, will be sold Monday, according to Student Body Pres. Norm Litzner.

Tickets will be on sale in Luther Hall from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. In order to be sure of getting a seat at the game, students should buy their tickets in advance, said Litzner.

Neumann To Attend ALC Board Meeting

Dr. G. J. Neumann, chairman of the Division of Languages and Literature, will attend a meeting of the Board of Publications of the American Lutheran Church in Chicago Feb. 23.

Neumann, who has been a member of this committee since it was organized in 1930, stated that this may be the last meeting of this group.

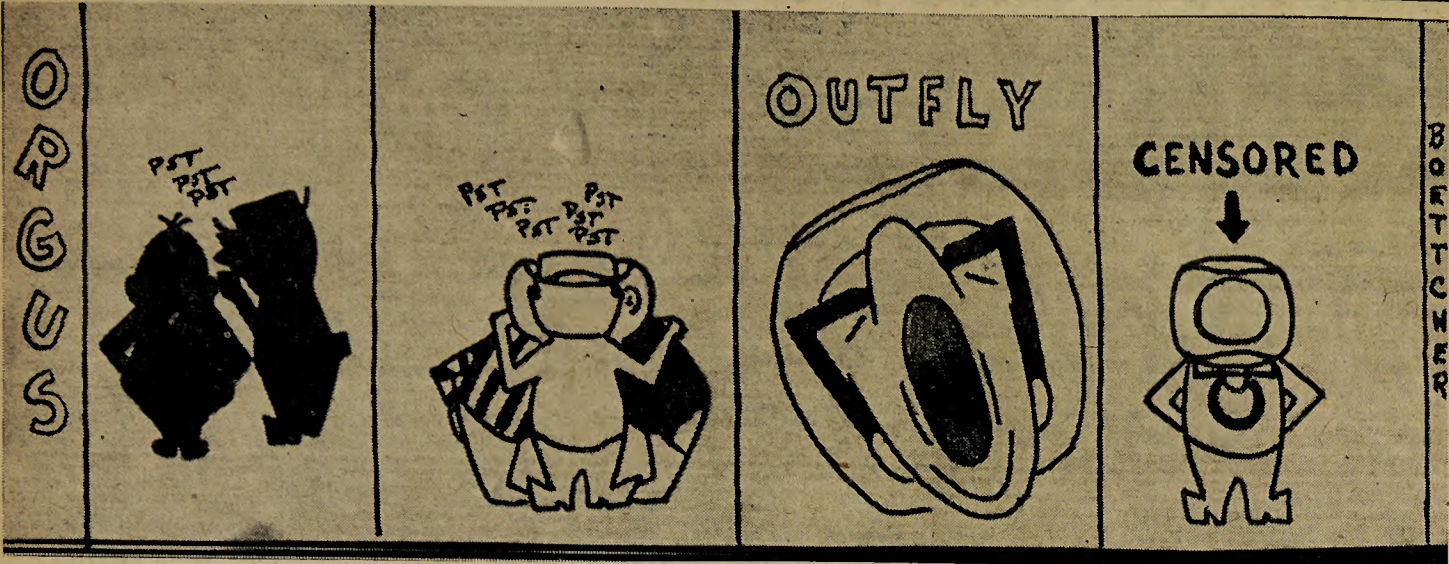

"Because of the merger proceedings, a new committee will be established," he said.

New Chapel Facade Is Unwrapped

A NEW FACE revealed for the first time, the chapel-auditorium begins to resemble architects' sketches. Workmen removed the plastic covering from the front of the building this week.

EDITORIALS— Seeking Social Status

When the Student Senate convenes Monday evening it will have an issue on the agenda which may mold the future for a portion of campus life.

North Hall, a housing unit for men on campus, has filed a petition with the solons to become recognized constitutionally as a legal social organization.

This petition has been on the docket previously this year and at that time the student legislators rejected the bid almost unanimously.

After re-referring the request to the student-faculty committee, student government officers turned it back to the North Hall men, ruling that their organization had no specific purposes.

Now the group has presented the petition again, complete with a list of purposes. Arguments pro and con surround their action.

North Hallers feel that they can help raise general campus spirit with their group and also undertake several service projects that will benefit the entire campus.

Government leaders feel that the same end might be reached as a dormitory unit, thus eliminating two sets of officers, two treasuries, etc.

A constitution for such an organization appears completely superfluous to the current campus setting. At the present time, we are overburdened with organizations and clubs that exist in name only.

If one group were legalized, more would follow the same pattern. As students spread themselves thinner and thinner in more groups, each group would grow weaker and weaker. The Senate should act to prevent this.

Old satirists never die, they just fade — by the way, has anyone seen LLM lately?

Wartburg's inevitable listing: John Tuecke breaking the school basketball scoring record, cold weather in March, four-week tests and convocation.

Notice to financially embarrassed Wartburg men: Basketball season is about over. This is your last chance to get your free dates before the season ends.

Note to freshmen — Make one person happy each day and by the time you are a senior you will have made a great percentage of the people at Wartburg happy for a little time at least.

I Dare You To Be Different

By Bruce Buslaff

I dare you to be different.

I dare you to stand out, away from the crowd, and to follow the desires of God, not the evil schemes of men. I dare you to speak up and refuse when you are requested to go along with the crowd that wants you to do something you know God does not like. Stand back and tell them "NO, I'm not going because I do not approve." I dare you!

I dare you to speak up when questioned about your beliefs, whether they be political, religious or any other. Don't change your attitude just to avoid criticism or the possibility of ridicule. Speak up in defense for the things that you know God favors. Don't clam-up just so that you can remain popular. I dare you!

Hulme Presents Challenge

During Spiritual Emphasis Week, Dr. William Hulme presented us with a challenge; he dared us to be different in that we should not suppress our problems and weaknesses, but face and overcome them. Naturally, this is much harder and may require us to give up some pleasures of this life, but he dared us to overlook these pleasures and to be different.

In one of the evening chapel services, we were dared to take up the cross and bear our own burdens. It is so much easier to pass over these things and let someone else carry the load and do all the work. We were dared to be different.

Hjortland Dares Also

Dr. Elmer Hjortland dared us to be different. He dared us to go out into the grim and sin-filled world with the Word in us and to be examples for Christ. We are not to follow the world and its pleasures, but we are to arise and to speak out because of the desire to show the light and truth of God. We have been dared to stand firm in our convictions; we have been dared to be different.

Everywhere we turn we have been dared by someone. Fine. Now let us accept the challenge. But we can't just jump in and proceed blindly. We must follow two necessary steps in meeting this challenge. The first is preparatory participation. Use your talents and take part in the numerous opportunities offered at Wartburg.

Support Campus Church

Attend the chapel services, support our campus church, serve and work when asked to serve in some way and take part in the dorm devotions or in any of the other chances for preparatory participation found here at Wartburg. Remember, you get out of something just what you put into it. Try putting your whole self into the attempt to prepare for the challenge and you'll be surprised at what you can do by God's grace.

The second necessary step in facing the challenge to be different is prayer. St. Paul writes, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Prayer can be the most powerful weapon known, and God will certainly strengthen us in the performance of His duty if we but use this power of prayer.

Participate, pray and then go forth to meet the great challenge that is before us every moment of our lives. I dare YOU!

CAMPUS VOICE SBP Commends Emphasis Week

Dear Sir,

I would like to make a few comments on the recent Spiritual Emphasis week which Wartburg College has experienced.

First of all, let me commend the Faculty-Student Activities Committee and all others who were instrumental in setting up such a fine program.

The selection of speakers was excellent. Both speakers were very personable and down to earth in their presentations. Also, both Dr. William Hulme and Dr. Elmer Hjortland were more than willing to discuss various matters with the students.

The whole week's program was well planned and left little to be desired. I think this year's Spiritual Emphasis week was the finest I have witnessed since I have been at Wartburg.

I pray that it has been a shot in the arm for our spiritual life on campus.

Sincerely,
Norm Litzner

Overtime Victory Makes Mark 16-4

Wartburg's Knights pushed their season record to 16-4 Thursday night when they traveled to Cedar Falls and topped Iowa State Teachers College 69-62 in an overtime battle.

Knights were down 30-29 at half-time, but some heads-up playing in the final seconds of the second half gave them a 51-51 tie at the end of regulation play.

Don Hein, who hit a spectacular mid-court shot to end the first half, had scoring honors for the evening with 14 field goals and two free throws for a total of 30 points.

Clutch shooting by Hein and Marv Ott gave the Knights a quick eight-point lead in the overtime period that forced the Panthers to foul to gain possession of the ball. Wartburg promptly connected on its free throws to insure a 69-62 victory.

John Tuecke moved closer to breaking the Wartburg scoring record as he picked up 11 points. Tuecke now needs only 29 points to set a new record currently being held by John Adix, 1958 grad.

Dies Has 223 Game To Lead IM Bowlers

Sophomore Bob Dies rolled a 223 last Saturday in intramural bowling competition for the day's top performance.

Dies' single game score is the high single game so far this season.

Don Ringgenberg's team dropped its first game but still defeated Stan Ahrendt's team 2-1. Ringgenberg's team stayed on top of the loop, but Allen Snook's team threatened by sweeping three games from Bruce Buslaff's club for the day's only sweep.

Bill Wachholz's squad won two games and dropped one against Jerry Ford's team, and Roger Hein's team defeated Dave Braunschweig's 2½-½.

Denny Krominga led all men bowlers with a 362 series in two games. Irene Rademaker, bowled 286 to top the pinettes.

Young Panthers Stop Squire Bid

Wartburg Squires became another victim of the Iowa State Teachers College Panther freshmen Thursday night 82-72.

ISTC freshmen, undefeated this year, opened a wide spread early in the game. Wartburg managed to come back in the last half to within three points at one time, but ISTC pulled away in the closing minutes to sew up the victory.

Bob Harken notched 17 points to lead an evenly balanced scoring attack for Coach Wendy Liemohn. Len Schmidt, Dave Brunscheen and Marlyn (Tiny) Eitmann all were in double figures.

Scramble?

YES, IT IS A CONSTANT SCRAMBLE when Wartburg and Luther clash. Here Marv Ott, John Tuecke and Don Hein form a pocket around two Norse during 91-81 Knight win here earlier in the season. Coach Ham Peterson's team will be looking for revenge when the second scramble occurs Tuesday night in C. K. Preus Gym on the Luther campus. Wartburg students are asked to purchase tickets early. (See page one.)

Matmen Cop 2 Victories; Meet Upper Iowa Wed.

Wartburg's wrestlers copped their second win in a row Tuesday night, beating Luther College at Decorah 16-12, to give them a 4-1 season record.

Jim Mueller got the only pin of the evening by flattening Wayne Knudson in 5 minutes 38 seconds, while John Sternberg dropped his bout to Frank Liston 6-5 on riding time.

Monday night the Knights were at Cedar Rapids, where they swamped Coe College 29-3. Wartburg's Jim Mueller pinned Larry Wallace in 5 minutes 43 seconds in the 147-pound class, and heavy-weight LeRoy Scharnhorst was credited with a win over Dave Ardapple when Ardapple dislocated his elbow in the second period.

Wednesday night the matmen will host Upper Iowa in Knights Gym at 7:30 p.m. The Knights have only to meet St. Cloud on Feb. 27 at St. Cloud before hosting the Iowa Conference Wrestling Meet on March 5 in Knights Gym.

Tackle Norsemen There Tues. Night

By Tom Kuckkahn

Tonight at 7:30 p.m. the Wartburg Knights will begin their stretch drive towards their second consecutive Iowa Conference championship when they host the Parsons College Wildcats.

Parsons, along with Luther College and Upper Iowa University, has thrown down the gauntlet in front of the Axmen. Meeting the challenge successfully is going to require a maximum effort by the Axmen.

Parsons In Middle

Parsons is having a mediocre season and is lost in the middle of the conference standings, but, as Central proved last Friday night, when a team with nothing to lose and everything to gain takes on the champs, a lot of things can happen.

Lettermen Don Overland and Larry Lofgren will be leading the Wildcats in their upset quest.

Tuesday night the Knights journey to Decorah to battle the fourth-place Luther College Norsemen. Wartburg-Luther contests have produced many thrillers in the past, and Tuesday night's encounter can be expected to be no different.

Victims Of Ax

The Norse, victims of the Ax earlier this season, have the spunk and talent to be a spoiler at this stage of the race. Clay Lyon and Armin Pipho are the Norsies' biggest threats.

If the spirit of Wartburg is still alive, this night will be not only a battle between basketball teams but also a contest between the voices and bands of the rival schools.

Picking Up Splinters

By Chuck Jepsen

Tonight's game with Parsons is your last chance to see the Knights in action at home. Center John Tuecke, currently averaging well over twenty points a game, and forward Norm Remmers will be making their last home appearance in a Knight uniform.

Center John Tuecke's scoring totals tend to make us forget his other feats on the hardwood. He is currently leading the team in rebounds. Tuesday night against Dubuque he set a school record by pulling 24 from the boards, bringing his career total to 915, three more than the former mark.

For the third consecutive time in the last two seasons, Wartburg has defeated its big brother, ISTC. Wartburg's recent success against TC, a school 4 times as large, appears to be a strong argument for scheduling more games with bigger, more well-known schools.

Wartburg's recent physical and athletic growth makes it natural to reach upward and attempt to compete on a higher level of athletics.

There are many drawbacks to such ideas, including transportation problems and schedule tie-ups resulting from playing 16 Iowa Conference games.

Credit must be given to Pete Spoden, TC forward, for holding John Tuecke to 11 points. Tuecke, bottled up most of the time, was content to let hot Don Hein grab scoring honors.

Wartburg's slow-down tactics not only helped win the game, but also helped save Coach Bundgaard's reduced corps for crucial conference contests in the near future.

Wartburg cagers not only shine on the basketball court but also in the classroom, as the combined grade point of the varsity squad members was 2.76. John Tuecke led the way with the books as well as the basketball with a 3.333 average. He was followed closely by Dave Jensen, Bob Mueller and Norm Remmers, all above 3.000.

Wartburg's freshmen finally came out on the right end of one of those close ball games as they defeated Dubuque 94-91. Bob Harken, now also a member of the varsity, played one of his best games of the season.

March 13 Is Kickoff Day For Student Project Drive

March 13 has been set as the kickoff date for the Student Body Project drive, according to John Tuecke, general chairman.

Actual drive will be held March 13 through 18, and the project will be climaxed with a carnival April 9. Junior Fred Mai, Hill City, Kan., will serve as this year's carnival chairman.

Preliminary ballots for the project will be distributed at convocation Tuesday.

"Students may add any suggestions to the ballot or leave their ideas in the Student Senate office," stated Tuecke.

Dave Jensen, project chairman, reported on suggestions from the administration and faculty, and housing unit chairmen were named at the Student Body Project Committee's recent meeting.

Trumpet Second In Nationwide Safety Contest

The Trumpet received word yesterday that it has placed second in the non-daily division of the 12th annual national college newspaper traffic safety contest.

The Trumpet's campaign was waged last semester, during the holiday season.

The contest is sponsored by Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Company, a division of the Kemper Insurance group and will net the Trumpet $250 in prize money.

Wilbur Flachman, editor, received a letter of congratulations from James S. Kemper, chairman of the board of Kemper Insurance.

The newspaper competition was originated in 1948 by Lumbermens as a means of stimulating student leadership in the promotion of safe driving among college students.

An annual participant, the Trumpet tied for third place in 1954 in the contest under Ted Heinecken, editor. Previously, individuals have won awards for best editorials or cartoons.

Judges for the contest were Samuel J. Campbell, chairman of the Kable News company, The Hon. Paul Fannin, governor of Arizona, Clarence Budington Kelland, author, Walter T. Lucking, president of the Arizona Public Service Company, and Eugene C. Puliam, publisher of Indianapolis Newspapers, Inc.

The Anemome of Black Hills Teachers College, Spearfish, S.D., won first place in the nondaily contest. Third prize went to The Miami Student, Miami University, Miami, Ohio.

Campus Church Choir To Practice On Wed.

First practice of the campus church choir will be next Wednesday evening from 6:45 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the choir rehearsal room of the Fine Arts Center.

Robert E. Lee, Music Department, will conduct the choir.

"The choir is being formed as a result of demands by the student members," said Lee. "Well over a hundred students replied to a church questionnaire that they would like to sing in choir for the church."

"We will try to make it a regular church choir, open to anyone of the church who wants to sing and help beautify our Sunday service," Lee explained.

Debaters Travel To Wis. State For Meet Today

Wartburg has two teams debating at Wisconsin State College in Eau Claire today.

One team composed of sophomore Al Putz and senior Dean Engbrecht and another team consisting of juniors Bill Goetz and Dallas Johnson will compete in five rounds of debate there.

They will be debating the national collegiate debate proposition: "Resolved, That Congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court."

These four people will also take part in discussion. The question they will discuss is "What should be the role of government in regulating organized labor?"

Three of the debate team members will take part in other areas of speaking: Dean Engbrecht in narrative, Bill Goetz in extemporaneous and Dallas Johnson in oratory.

Last weekend two debate teams from Wartburg participated in a debate tournament held at Central College, Pella.

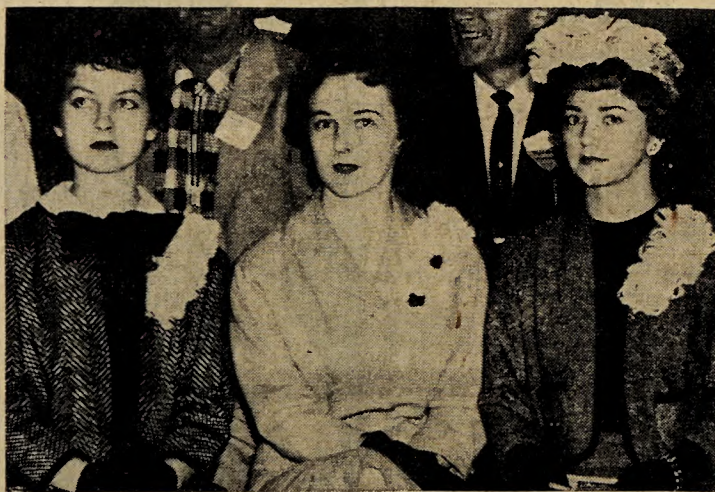

Junior Deanna Stob and sophomore Meta Fokkena won two debates and lost two. Sophomore Al Putz and senior Dean Engbrecht won three and lost one, which tied them with three other teams for the top in the tournament.

Two At MTNA

Dr. Edwin Liemohn and C. Robert Larson, members of the Wartburg Music Department, will attend the six-state convention of the Music Teachers National Association in Wichita, Kan., Feb. 23-26.

Mr. Larson will read a paper on "Handling the Register Break." During the convention, he will also appear in a panel discussing "Vocal Problems and Answers."
